MINUTE ORDER IN CHAMBERS

On October 27, 2010, the Court received letters from Defendant's attorney and from Defendant requesting a different designation for his place of incarceration than provided in his Judgment and Commitment Order (#15). The Clerk shall file the letters and provide a copy of the letter to the Court from Defendant to Government counsel.

The letters will be treated as a motion to designate a different facility for Defendant's incarceration.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED that the Judgment and Commitment Order (#15) is amended to provide that the Court recommends Defendant be incarcerated at FCI, Terminal Island to allow visits from family and friends. This designation is in lieu of the designation previously made in the Judgment and Commitment Order (#15).
